Subject: Letter of Recommendation for Antoine Thallot

Annecy, April 19, 2024

Dear Madam, Sir,

As the founder of the Company Cup, the first corporate multisports challenge in France and Switzerland, I am pleased to recommend Antoine Thallot should you consider employing him.

During his two years of apprenticeship within our small team of five people, Antoine was highly committed to all his assignments. He quickly took on the role of event project manager, coordinating events.

I had intended to hire Antoine permanently; however, I already know that our turnover in 2024 will unfortunately not allow us to convert his apprenticeship position into a full-time employee as I had hoped.

Antoine has taken on various responsibilities with great efficiency. He played an active role in the commercial prospecting for our event, the Company Cup, (an event with 8,000 participants spread over 6 locations), by prospecting over 400 companies via telephone, which requires resilience and perseverance.

He managed complete projects, including detailed budget preparation and administrative formalities.

In 2023, Antoine was in charge of communications for the events, with the creation of an annual editorial calendar and content for our social medias. He was responsible for implementing new operational processes and manuals to optimize information sharing with our volunteers through a Google site.

During the year 2024, he took charge of organizing the Company Cup Lyon and also taught a course on sports event management.

He was involved in checking bank statements and monitoring client invoicing, ensuring precise management.

As a project manager for four major events, Antoine coordinated several volunteers on the day of the event.

Antoine possesses fine human and professional qualities. Rigorous, honest, and fully committed to his missions, he has demonstrated a true capacity for adaptation and a constructive team spirit. His ability to anticipate needs, propose innovative solutions, and take relevant initiatives make him a valuable asset to any team.

I naturally take pleasure in recommending Antoine Thallot for a position in the fields of event management, communication, and marketing.

Madam, Sir, I humbly extend my distinguished greetings.

Emmanuel Piegay
